

BIOGRAPHY

Milo Manheim

Zed

Milo Manheim voices Zed, a charismatic zombie and Addison's boyfriend, in "ZOMBIES: The Re-Animated Series."

Manheim had a big 2023, starring in five well-received projects, including the hit young adult drama series "School Spirits"; the Disney+ Original Movie "Prom Pact," a romantic comedy set during the emotion and excitement of high school Prom season; the Disney+ series "Doogie Kamealoha, M.D."; the film "Journey to Bethlehem"; and Eli Roth's horror-thriller "Thanksgiving," opposite Patrick Dempsey, which already has been greenlit for a second movie.

In 2022, Manheim reprised his lead role as Zed in "ZOMBIES 3" and also appeared opposite his "ZOMBIES" franchise co-star Meg Donnelly in a recurring role for ABC's "American Housewife." In 2018, he wowed audiences and came in second place in the 27th season of ABC's "Dancing with the Stars."

A second-generation actor and son of award-winning actress Camryn Manheim, Manheim was born and raised in Los Angeles, California. After growing up on the sets of "The Practice" and "Ghost Whisperer," he was bitten by the acting bug and began training in an after-school program at the age of 7. He went on to perform in 15 musicals with Liza Monjauze Productions, including "Rent," "Footloose," "Tommy," "A Chorus Line," "Gypsy" and "Spring Awakening." Manheim also performed in the original musical "Generation Me" at the prestigious New York Musical Festival (NYMF), for which he won the 2017 NYMF Award of Excellence for Best Leading Actor.