

National Geographic Offering Federal Employees Complimentary Tickets to See Free Solo in IMAX®

National Geographic will offer complimentary tickets to select screenings of FREE SOLO at AMC Georgetown for federal employees who are impacted by the partial government shutdown. Tickets will be distributed on a first-come, first-served basis at the theater starting one hour before the screening. Federal employees with a valid government ID may each receive up to two tickets and vouchers for popcorn and soda. FREE SOLO is playing in IMAX® for one week only nationwide and in Canada. Contact pressroom@natgeo.com with questions. Screenings: Tuesday, January 15, 1 PM Wednesday, January 16, 1 PM Thursday, January 17, 1 PM Theater information: AMC Georgetown 3111 K St NW Washington, DC 20007 About the film: From award-winning filmmaker E. Chai Vasarhelyi and world-renowned filmmaker, cinematographer and mountaineer Jimmy Chin (MERU), FREE SOLO is a breathtaking portrait of the free soloist climber Alex Honnold, as he prepares for an unprecedented feat: climbing the face of the world's most famous rock ... the 3,200-foot El Capitan in Yosemite National Park ... without a rope. Celebrated as one of the greatest athletic feats of any kind, Honnold's climb set the ultimate standard: perfection or death. Succeeding in this challenge, Honnold enters his story in the annals of human achievement. FREE SOLO is both an edge-of-your seat thriller and an inspiring portrait of an athlete who exceeded our current understanding of human physical and mental potential. The result is a triumph of the human spirit. Click here to watch the trailer and learn more.
