

Feb. 12, 2025

THURSDAY, FEB. 13

IMPACT x Nightline: "What's Happening with Wendy Williams?" (318) – Streaming Only on Hulu

Logline: Wendy Williams has broken her silence on her guardianship, challenging her dementia diagnosis and pleading for her independence. "IMPACT x Nightline" speaks with Williams and dives deep into her case as her guardian calls for her to be reevaluated.

The Inside Scoop:

- ABC News Studios' "IMPACT x Nightline: What's Happening with Wendy Williams?" begins streaming on Thursday, Feb. 13, only on Hulu.
- The episode, led by "Nightline" co-anchor Byron Pitts, features a new audio interview with Wendy Williams, where she discusses her court-appointed guardianship, her dementia diagnosis and living in the memory unit of a healthcare facility. The episode also features new interviews with those close to her, including her brother, Tommy Williams, and her friends Sunny Hostin, a former federal prosecutor and co-host of "The View," and Jason Lee, CEO of Hollywood Unlocked.
- Additional new interviews include the following:
 - Henry Brown, Wendy Williams' former colleague at KISS FM 98.7
 - Janine Rubenstein, editor-at-large, People magazine
 - Dr. Leah Croll, neurologist
 - Kelley Carter, senior entertainment reporter, Andscape
 - Brian Buckmire, ABC News legal contributor

-- ABC --