Freeform is giving big Disney energy all November long with so much goodness one can't afford to miss a night. "30 Days of Disney" returns with themed weeks that make it easy to kick back and enjoy the magic of Disney with friends and family. The programming event features a lineup of beloved films from the entire Walt Disney catalog, including Disney Animated classics like "Lilo & Stitch," "Aladdin" and "Beauty and the Beast" and Disney-Pixar films like a "Toy Story" movie marathon, "WALL-E," "Inside Out" and modern fan favorites "Soul" and "Turning Red."

Disney's most beloved musicals will have viewers singing along to favorite songs this Nov. 4-8, with films like "Aladdin," "Moana," "Encanto" and "Frozen"/"Frozen 2."

Favorite Disney villains will take evil to new heights, and they are beloved for it. From Nov. 11-15, watch out for Ursula from “The Little Mermaid,” Scar from “The Lion King,” and icons “Maleficent: Mistress of Evil” and “Cruella.”

Disney is not the same without epic adventures like “Jungle Cruise” and the “Pirates of the Caribbean” movie marathons, airing Nov. 18-22.

The month rounds out with a Princess Week from Nov. 24-28, featuring “Tangled,” “Beauty and the Beast,” “The Princess Diaries,” “Brave” and a special airing of “Moana” to celebrate Disney Animation’s “Moana 2,” in theaters Wednesday, Nov. 27.

Plus, get a taste of the holiday season with a marathon of “The Santa Clause” films, “Home Alone” and “Dr. Seuss’ The Grinch” (2018).

Last November’s event reached nearly 27 million viewers, and Freeform ranked as a Top 5 cable entertainment network among Adults 18-34 (No. 4) and Adults 18-49 (No. 5).

Below is a night-by-night list of the movies airing during “30 Days of Disney.”
