Whoopi Goldberg, Joy Behar, Sunny Hostin, Sara Haines, Alyssa Farah Griffin and Ana Navarro are returning to the “Hot Topics” for a new season in the award-winning talk show’s brand-new studio when “The View” returns for season 28 on Tuesday, Sept. 3 (11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. EDT). Watched in more households than any other talk show in America, “The View” is ready to get the conversation started after concluding season 27 as the most-watched daytime talk show for the fourth consecutive season, hitting a three-year high in overall viewers. The co-hosts will welcome an exciting lineup of politicians, celebrities and newsmakers in the first two weeks, including Rep. Nancy Pelosi, Justice Ketanji Brown Jackson, Gov. Josh Shapiro, Venus Williams, Katie Ledecky, Lauren Sanchez, Kathryn Hahn, Joe Locke and more.

“We are excited to get back to the table to dive into the topics that our viewers really care about,” said executive producer Brian Teta. “The breakneck pace of the news cycle fuels our co-hosts’ opinions, resulting in some pretty incredible conversations. The show really thrives during presidential election season, and with our move to our new downtown studio for season 28, just two months before Election Day, I think the best is yet to come.”

The popular “Behind the Table” daily podcast series returns for a second season, and coming this fall, videos of the full episodes will be posted on YouTube. Produced in partnership with ABC Audio, the headline-making podcast hosted by executive producer Brian Teta provides listeners with extraordinary insider perspectives offering first-hand reactions from the co-hosts to what happened on the show, candid conversations about their lives, reactions to some of the most talked-about interviews, viewer questions and special guests. New episodes of “The View: Behind the Table” will post weekdays on Amazon Music, Apple Podcasts, Audacy, Google Podcasts, iHeartRadio, Pandora, SiriusXM, Spotify, TuneIn and the ABC News app.
