BIOGRAPHY

AMIRAH J
Ava on ABC's "High Potential"

Amirah J is a rising actress with a natural gift of captivating audiences with her exceptional range and depth of emotion. She discovered her love for acting at an early age and continues to hone her craft through her unwavering dedication.

Amirah broke onto the scene in season nine of Showtime's hit series "Shameless," in which she played the dynamic Xan opposite Emmy® and Golden Globe® winner Jeremy Allen White. Her performance in this series left a memorable impression on viewers, fellow cast members and filmmakers alike.

In addition to acting, Amirah is an accomplished cheerleader, hip-hop dancer and gymnast. A native of Washington D.C., Amirah currently resides in Los Angeles with her family, who provides a constant source of support and inspiration.

PERSONAL INFORMATION
HOMETOWN: Washington, District of Columbia
BIRTHDATE: June 18

-- 2024 --