Get your Mickey ears and popcorn ready as Freeform celebrates "30 Days of Disney" with treasured Disney films starting Nov. 1. Fans will be transported into a world of nostalgia with beloved classics like Disney Animation's "The Little Mermaid" and "Tangled" to more recent films like Disney-Pixar's "Moana" and "Coco," with a dash of seasonal classics like "Home Alone" and "Disney's A Christmas Carol" to gear up for the holiday season.

The programming event will also feature the Freeform premieres of "Captain Marvel," "Free Guy," "Jungle Cruise" and "Raya and the Last Dragon."

Throughout each week in November, your wishes will come true with special marathons of your favorite Disney movies. During the weekend of Nov. 3, root for your favorite sheroes in movies like “Mulan” and “Brave.”

Then, on Saturday, Nov. 11, hop aboard the ship as we take an adventure with Jack Sparrow for a marathon of “Pirates of the Caribbean” films.

During the weekend of Nov. 18, fans can dawn their tiaras to celebrate like a Disney Princess with classics including “Beauty and the Beast” and “The Princess and the Frog.”

To celebrate the beloved film's 10th anniversary, Freeform will air a marathon of “Frozen,” “Frozen II,” and the short film “Olaf’s Frozen Adventure” on Monday, Nov. 27.
