Sunil Hall

Co-Executive Producer

Sunil Hall serves as co-executive producer of “StuGo,” an original animated series about six middle schoolers who get tricked into attending a fake academic summer camp by a mad scientist. What started as three months of learning transforms into an adventure of a lifetime on a tropical island filled with mind-reading manatees, giant fighting fungi, and fashion-forward mutants.

Hall has been drawing and painting since he was a child, growing up in Southern California. He began animating in high school and received a Bachelor of Fine Arts in character animation from Cal Arts.

He has worked in television animation for over two decades, directing projects such as Nickelodeon’s “The Penguins of Madagascar” and Disney’s “Gravity Falls” and “Pickle and Peanut.” He was the showrunner of Dreamworks’ “The Mighty Ones,” a cartoon he co-created with Lynne Naylor.

Hall is currently at Titmouse Animation.
