

BIOGRAPHY

Zach Reino "Chip"

Zach Reino voices Chip, the oldest of the kids who is light in brawn but hefty in brain, in "StuGo," an original animated series about six middle schoolers who get tricked into attending a fake academic summer camp by a mad scientist. What started as three months of learning transforms into an adventure of a lifetime on a tropical island filled with mind-reading manatees, giant fighting fungi, and fashion-forward mutants.

Reino recurred in the Netflix series "Brews Brothers," recently appeared in the latest season of "Curb Your Enthusiasm," and is a frequent performer on Dropout.tv. He is also the voice of Zokie in Nickelodeon's new show "Zokie of Planet Ruby." He recently appeared in the film "The List," directed by Melissa Miller Costanzo and co-starring Clark Becko and Halston Sage, and "Cora Bora" starring Meg Statler. Other television credits include "The Sex Lives of College Girls," "Crazy Ex-Girlfriend" "Life in Pieces," "AP Bio," "Party Over Here," "Conan," "The Late Late Show," Hulu's "Hotwives of Las Vegas" and IFC's "Comedy Bang! Bang!"

He was recently featured as one of Vulture's "Comics to Watch" and released his debut musical-comedy album, "The Calendar Album," with his writing partner Jessica McKenna. The two host the popular podcast "Off Book! The Improvised Musical," which also tours as a hit live show.

Reino is also a two-time Writers Guild of America Award-winning writer for his work on Peacock's "Baking It."
