

BIOGRAPHY

Mimi Gianopulos
Giada Russo

Mimi Gianopulos stars as Giada Russo, Justin's sharp and vivacious wife, in the upcoming series "Wizards Beyond Waverly Place," a continuation of the Emmy® Award-winning "Wizards of Waverly Place."

Gianopulos is a Carnegie Mellon University School of Drama graduate with a degree in musical theater. Her previous television roles include playing Sue Mengers in the miniseries "The Offer," Kaitlyn in the comedy series "Rutherford Falls," and a recurring role as Morgan on "American Princess." Gianopulos is best known for her recurring role as Angela in the Freeform series "Baby Daddy" and was also cast in the lead role for the pilot of "Continuing Fred" for Freeform.

On the film side, Gianopulos can be seen as Cammy in the comedy "Get a Job," as well as Molly in "What to Expect When You're Expecting." Most recently, she wrapped production on the independent feature film "The Good Half."

Gianopulos currently resides in Los Angeles, where she was born and raised.