SUNDAY, DEC. 3

10:00-11:00 p.m. EST - The Great Christmas Light Fight: "1105" (1105)

Logline: It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas as Season 11 of the tree-mendously popular series continues. The Hazard, Ward, Cirlin and Greene families compete for the $50,000 grand prize and coveted Light Fight trophy as Carter Oosterhouse judges.

Extended Logline: The holiday festivities continue as judge Carter Oosterhouse meets the Hazard Family who transform their home into a mega-sized gingerbread house, using repurposed DIY products, paper clips and all, that leaves the city of Highlands Ranch, Colorado, in awe. The Ward Family takes the competition to new heights in Keeler, Texas, with their 3-D animated Christmas drone show complete with over 400 synchronized drones. In New York City, the Cirlin family invites viewers to climb aboard at their North Pole-inspired airport incorporating everything from an automated elf toy wrapping station and reindeer flight training academy to a custom flight simulator where viewers can get behind the reins of Santa's sleigh. The Greene Family is the beacon of their neighborhood in Chula Vista, California, creating Christmas chaos filled with traditional holiday elements mixed with fun, quirky surprises. Tune in to find out who wins the coveted Light Fight trophy on ABC's "The Great Christmas Light Fight."

"The Great Christmas Light Fight" is produced by Fremantle. Brady Connell, Max Swedlow and Felicia Aaron White serve as executive producers. Taniya Nayak and Carter Oosterhouse are the judges.
