July 3 (10:30-11:00 p.m. EDT) – Episode #1008 – "Rule #8: Heavy Is The Heart That Wears The Crown"

The Agyekum family has a post-ball debrief. Kal and Thelma contemplate a path forward. Brenda takes Delali to a remote cabin to mend their relationship, but unexpected guests derail their trip.

July 10 (10:30-11:00 p.m. EDT) – Episode #1009 – "Rule #9: Royals Always Bring It"

Michael comes to dinner at the Agyekum household, where Akili grills him. Akili reviews Thelma's work on a new unit to see if she is meeting expectations for the family business. Thelma invites the whole family to her fitness summit.

July 17 (10:30-11:00 p.m. EDT) – Episode #1010 – "Rule #10: Stay Your Own Way" – SEASON FINALE

Kal's presence at the fitness summit causes tension between Akili and Delali. While Kal seeks forgiveness, Brenda explores her law-career options. The family throws Thelma a surprise birthday party, with more than a few surprises.

July 9 (10:00-11:00 p.m. EDT) – Episode #1001 – "I Think My Ex-Husband is a Serial Killer" – SERIES PREMIERE

Meet Dr. Sasha Reid and her secret society of brilliant young women from vastly different backgrounds as they unite with one common goal — to use data and criminal psychology to find answers and protect those that law enforcement has ignored.

July 16 (10:00-11:00 p.m. EDT) – Episode #1002 – "Stalking the Lone Wolf"

After receiving an inquiry from a desperate "Veronica," the Midnight Order continues to piece together her ex-husband's personality profile to determine if he could be the killer in some of Canada's most infamous cold cases.

July 23 (10:00-11:00 p.m. EDT) – Episode #1003 – "The Butcher of Port Coquitlam"

The team focuses on keeping Canada's most notorious serial killer, Robert Pickton, behind bars. Even though Pickton was never charged with 20 murders, the police are trying to dispose of potentially crucial evidence from the investigation.

July 30 (10:00-11:00 p.m. EDT) – Episode #1004 – “Nightmare at Piggy’s Palace”

The Midnight Order meets up with retired police officer Lorimer Shenher to investigate the Pickton Farm. They discuss the possibility of accomplices and a potential coverup and speak to several victims’ family members.
