

SEANN WILLIAM SCOTT

Gabriel on ABC's "Shifting Gears"

Seann William Scott can currently be seen in Paul Feig's recently released Amazon film "Jackpot" starring John Cena and Awkwafina, and as the lead in the independent feature film "Bad Man," which is in post-production.

Prior to this, his other recent credits include the sequel to "Wrath of Becky" starring opposite Lulu Wilson, the half-hour Fox series "Welcome to Flatch" for creators Jenny Bicks and Paul Feig, and the Blumhouse thriller "Bloodline," which is a stark contrast to his well-known work in comedy.

Scott's legacy credits of course include starring in blockbuster comedies such as "Role Models" opposite Paul Rudd "Goon," directed by Michael Dowse opposite Liev Schreiber; "The Rundown" opposite Dwayne Johnson; "Old School" opposite Will Ferrell; "Road Trip" for director Tod Phillips, and the "American Pie" franchise.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

HOMETOWN: Cottage Grove, Minnesota

BIRTHDATE: October 3