- "Dancing with the Stars" concluded its spectacular season 33 as the top program of the night, delivering record-breaking audience in both Total Viewers (6.36 million) and Adults 18-49 (1.14 rating) – the best Total Viewer audience since the show's season 29 finale on 11/23/20 and the best Adults 18-49 audience since the season 29 premiere on 9/14/20.
- In addition to wins among Total Viewers and Adults 18-49, the extravagant three-hour finale, in which Joey Graziadei and his partner, Jenna Johnson, took home the Len Goodman Mirrorball Trophy, swept additional key demographics including Adults 18-34 (1.27 rating), Women 18-49

(1.61 rating), Women 18-34 (1.90 rating) and Men 18-34 (0.65 rating), among others, while also pushing ABC to a win for the night.

- “Dancing with the Stars” delivered double-digit gains in both Total Viewers (+16% - 6.36 million vs. 5.50 million) and Adults 18-49 (+70% - 1.14 rating vs. 0.67 rating) compared to its year-ago season finale (12/5/23), turning in its best Adults 18-49 season finale performance in 7 years – since 5/21/18.
- “Dancing with the Stars” led its closest broadcast competitor, NBC’s “The Voice,” by +226%, more than tripling its Adults 18-49 performance (1.14 rating vs. 0.35 rating).
- Additionally, the season 33 finale was the highest-rated Adults 18-49 regularly scheduled entertainment telecast in primetime since NBC’s “This Is Us” finale (1.28 rating on 5/24/22).
- Season to date, “Dancing with the Stars” stands as the No. 1 entertainment series among Adults 18-49 (0.77 rating) – the first time for the show to take the top spot for the broadcast season in its entire history.
- The show once again broke voting records, garnering over 32 million votes for the teams during the very competitive finale.
- “Dancing with the Stars” was the No. 1 most social TV program across broadcast and cable on 11/26 and the No. 1 most social episode of any entertainment series season to date.

“Dancing with the Stars” is produced in front of a live audience by BBC Studios Los Angeles Productions.
